Guests' number: 3-7

Term: 6-14 December 2025

Itinerary:

Map: <https://goo.gl/maps/uuhS7BgYVHQdBhnW7>

General notices and remarks:

- The assistance of an English speaking tour leader and transportation by air-conditioned 9-seats van is included throughout the itinerary.
- We recommend you to have some small amount of Polish zlotys in cash with you: to buy some snacks in local shops, to buy traditional products or souvenirs on local markets etc. In such places you can often pay only by cash.
- As this is a very small group (3-7) participants, the dinners and lunches are not included. This will give you more flexibility in choosing the meals from the menu as per your preferences.

- You will have wi-fi (wireless Internet connection) in all your hotels.

Day 1 (Saturday) December 6, 2025 Warsaw - your arrival

Your arrival in Warsaw. We will arrange the transfer from the airport to the hotel in the center of Warsaw.

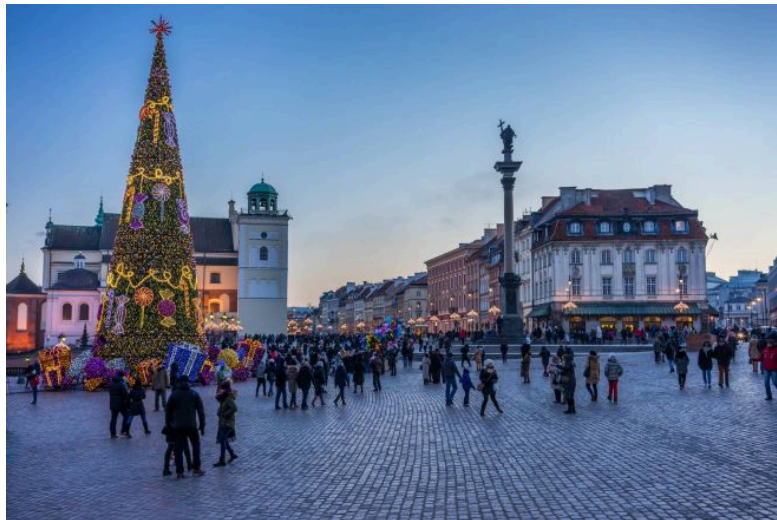

Some time to rest after the journey and prepare for the adventure.

No guide's assistance on that day.

Accommodation: Comfort class boutique hotel in the center of Warsaw.

Day 2 (Sunday) December 7, 2025 Warsaw - Christmas lights and decorations

Morning meeting with your tour leader and the tourist guide from Warsaw. You will have a guided tour (up to 4 hours) introducing you to the capital of Poland with its Old Town, which was meticulously rebuilt after World War II. It is an outstanding example of a near-total reconstruction of a span of history covering the 13th to the 20th centuries, and as a result, was placed on the UNESCO World Heritage list.

After visiting, the tour leader will suggest you some places for dinner.

Note: as this will be a small group (maximum 7 guests), the dinners and lunches are not included to give you more flexibility. Our guide will help you to choose restaurants, but you can order from the regular menu and pay for your meals directly at the restaurants.

After dinner coming back to your hotel.

Day 3 (Monday) December 8, 2025 Warsaw - at the crossroads of cultures

In the morning we will invite you to visit POLIN, The Museum of The History of Polish Jews. We want to show you how diverse, multicultural, sometimes mysterious and exotic this land used to be! Did you know that over 30 percent of the population of the Polish towns and cities before World War 2 were Jews? In December they are celebrating one of the most important holidays: Hanukkah. How did they celebrate it in Poland?

Today we would like to show you some of their history and culture in one of the best museums in Poland!

In the afternoon, we will come back to the Old Town to visit the popular Christmas Market "Barbican Decorated with Craft", where you might taste the local specialties, such as mulled wine, grilled sausage, bigos, oscypek. After the short tour on the marker with our guide, you will have some free time to explore on your own.

In the evening coming back to your hotel.

Day 4 (Tuesday) December 9, 2025 Christmas in the house of your ancestors

After breakfast check out from the hotel and departure from Warsaw. We will drive to Kraków and on the way we will stop in the Ethnographic Park in Tokarnia. You will have a guided tour in the museum during which we will tell you the story about everyday life in Poland in the 18th and 19th centuries... How did people prepare for Christmas? What did they eat? How was the house decorated? What were the customs and traditions? Why do you have to put coins and hay under the tablecloth on Christmas Eve? Why was it not allowed to borrow anything? What is podłaźniczka? We will try to answer these and many more questions.

In the afternoon arrival in Kraków, check in at the hotel and free afternoon.

Accommodation: 3* Hotel in the center of Kraków

Day 5 (Wednesday) December 10, 2025 "Rorate caeli desuper". Kraków from dusk till dawn

Throughout the Advent period in Catholic churches, first morning liturgy, at the time of the sunrise is celebrated in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is known as "Roraty" from the first words of the Gregorian chant known as The Advent Prose: Rorate Caeli, which means "Drop down ye heavens from above." People bring with them small wax candles or lanterns to light the dark church.

This morning (at 6:30 A.M.) we will invite volunteers to participate in the roraty at the Dominican Church. They celebrate it in a very traditional way.

After the celebration we will come back to the hotel for breakfast and about 10:00 A.M. we will begin the guided tour in Kraków. We will take a walk (up to 4h) with our local guide in the Wawel Hill, which is the centre of Polish history and culture, with the Sigismund Bell, king's tombs in the cathedral and of course the castle. We will walk in the narrow, romantic streets of the Old town and stop in the medieval Cloth Hall where traditional souvenirs can be bought. We will listen to St. Mary's trumpet call (called "hejnal").

In the afternoon you will have free time to explore Kraków, to do some shopping or have some rest.

It is possible to book the side trip to Wieliczka Salt Mine on that day (for now it is not included in the offer) - please contact us if you are interested.

Accommodation: 3* Hotel in the center of Kraków

Day 6 (Thursday) December 11, 2025 Kraków's Nativity scenes

This morning we will invite you to visit the exhibition of the famous Kraków Nativity Scenes. There is no other place on earth to produce equally unique creations! The tradition evolved in the 19th century and is passed down from generation to generation. The scene should be inspired by the city's architecture, but also the historical and political events. Sometimes they present legends or famous people. All of them are colorful, some or moving and making sounds.

In the afternoon we will invite you to the pierogi cooking classes. Without pierogi there is no real Polish Christmas!

Accommodation: 3* Hotel in the center of Kraków

Day 7 (Friday) December 12, 2025 Wrocław - the western traditions

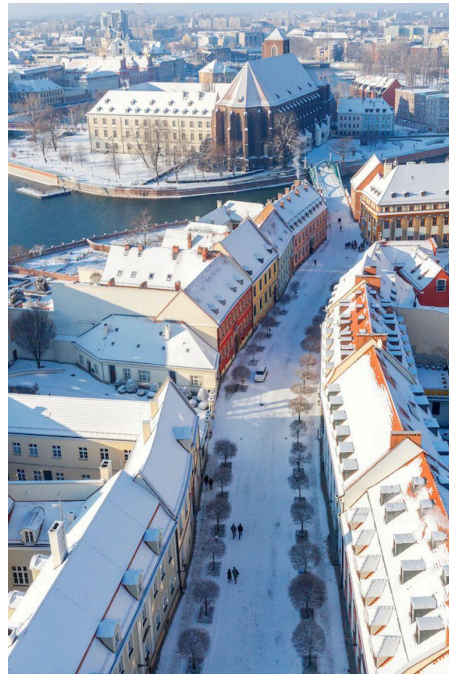

In the morning we will depart to Wrocław (about 3h drive). Many modern Christmas traditions came to Poland from Germany: decorating the Christmas tree, some popular carols, Christmas gifts. Wrocław, the capital of Lower Silesia, was a German city for many centuries. We will try to show you its complicated history and many cultures that are nowadays present in the city.

After check-in at the hotel you will have the guided tour in the Old Town. See the Main Square with historic pillory

- Wrocław's dwarfs and their history
- University of Wrocław with the entrance to the Mathematical Tower
- Ostrów Tumski with the cathedral

After the guided tour we will spend the evening at the famous Wrocław's Christmas

Market. There will be some mulled wine and we cannot miss the stands with the Bolesławiec pottery.
